A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

"Yale Pride" and "Belle" are milled and blended especially for home use. They are "satisfactory flours" and the wife is sure of inviting bread and pastries when she uses them.

De Laval Cream Separators

The DeLaval Cream Separator constitutes the best known means, in the light of science and the world's experience, for separating cream from milk.

Briefly stated, the process of centrifugal separation consists in passing the milk through a mechanically operated and rapidly revolving steel bowl, the inflow and discharge being continuous and the separation practically instantaneous—with all of the advantages and none of the disadvantages of gravity setting or other skimming of milk.

Both Farm and Dairy Sizes on exhibition at the building north of Jas Cogley's Sons implement ware rooms. Call and see them and get prices.

Letters from Florida.

Editor Yale Expositor.
Please pardon this intrusion on the columns of your much appreciated paper, as I must take the defensive, as my color has been grossly misrepresented in an article published in the Yale Record, and by one who lives in a "glass house." I think, also, I am able to give competent testimony as to the merits or demerits of this place in which so many Yaleites are making their homes and doing well.

We have many of them here now which makes Lutz quite homelike indeed. By the way I met a former Yaleite the other day and he said to me: "What do you suppose I saw the other day? Believe me I saw three Drakes waddling through the sand and making their way toward a piece of water." Yes, we have three Drakes here now, as Clarence Drake of Moivre is a recent arrival, and the writer of the article in the Yale Record is a Drake, and the first black Drake I ever saw, and blacker than I ever thought of becoming, as was decided very conclusively the other day in our hardware store when a vote was taken as to which of us was the blacker, and the writer of the article in the Record was a Drake, and took the banner, and even the colored race recognizes him as one of their own people.

Well, we do not exaggerate when we say we are delighted with the climate and the country. To say we have no drawbacks here would be to make a false statement, yet I do not know of a place which has so few. The winter has been like the Michigan summers and the lowest temperature has been in the 40s, and that is something unusual according to the testimony of old residents. It is a most beautiful sight to see our orange, grapefruit and banana groves, flowers in bloom and hear the birds sing in the very months when Michigan friends are hugging the fire. Our soil produces great crops of oranges, grapefruit, bananas, citrus fruit, kumquats, sweet potatoes, besides all kinds of vegetables grown in the north. I believe a man with five or ten acres properly cultivated, and set out to the fruits adapted to the state, is as well-to-do as the man with 40 or 80 acres in the north. Few come here and go away without being well-satisfied with the place, and most of them return sooner or later. Many who do not have good health in the north come here and with few exceptions, recuperate, and enjoy life in this most genial climate.

I thank you in advance for the space given this article, and wish to be remembered to all old Michigan friends. Lowell R. Monroe Lutz, Florida, Feb. 25, 1914.

We are in receipt of a letter from Harry K. Williams, who is located at Coleman, Fla., and will publish same next week.

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by Grant Holden.

ENGLAND'S BLACK MEN.

They Are Remnants of the Ancient Blue Painted Britons.

Practically every Englishman is Anglo-Saxon by blood, but there still are, according to scientists, one or two corners in England where there are colonies directly descended from the ancient Britons, the blue painted men who, according to the history books, inhabited England before the Anglo-Saxons killed them off.

If you came across them you would at once notice something curious about them. They do not look like Englishmen at all. They are short, as swarthy as Spaniards, with very narrow heads and with curiously cut profiles.

There are whole villages of these modern ancient Britons, though the villages are very few and very out of the way. It is this out of the wayness that has kept them so distinct from the country people around them.

Some of these villages have not even had road communication with the rest of the world till comparatively recent times.

One of these curious colonies is at Dunsford, in Surrey, Bedfordshire, too, has some villages of "black men."—London Tit-Bits.

Confusion.

Three ladies as they shot in an observation car Californiaward through the superb scenery in the world fell to talking about dogs.

"I don't know a thing about dogs," said the first lady. "They're all just dogs to me. If I have a preference, though, it's for the cob."

"Cobs are nice—so affectionate," agreed the second lady. "But I'm no dog sharp either. Still, I must say my choice of a dog would be a mustang. They're such good watch dogs, aren't they?"

"I don't know one dog from another," said the third lady. "I just divide them into big dogs and little dogs. I'm very fond of a hackney, though—I mean, of course, for a lap dog."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. It is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. Resolutions of Condolence.

Preamble and resolutions adopted by Brockway Lodge, No. 316, F. & A. M. at a regular communication held in lodge room March 5th 1914.

Whereas, our brothers, Dr. Wm. H. Gowan, F. W. Julian and Nelson Dexter, while in the full vigor of manhood, have been cut down by the scythe of time, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, their brethren here assembled, deplore their early death and the severance of the tie that binds Masonic hearts together, and that we bow in humble submission to the will of the Great Architect of the Universe, who doeth all things well, remaining true to Masonic principles and looking beyond, where under the benign team of the All-Seeing Eye, light, unmingled with darkness, shall reign unbroken and perpetual.

Resolved, That we hereby convey to the widows and friends of our departed brothers, this expression of our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of bereavement, ever bearing them in remembrance in harmony with the vows of true Masonry.

Resolved, That the charter of our Lodge be suitably draped in mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be entered on the records of the Lodge, and copies sent to the friends of our deceased brothers.

WE HAVE FAITH IN THIS STOMACH REMEDY

A woman customer said to us the other day, "Say, you ought to tell everyone in town about Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. I would myself if I could." That set us to thinking. So many people have used them and have so enthusiastically sounded their praises both to us and to their friends, that we had an idea you all knew about them. But in the chance that some of you who suffer from indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia, or some other stomach complaint, don't know about them—we are writing this.

They contain Bismuth and Pepsin, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe and comfort the stomach, promote the secretion of gastric juice, help to quickly digest the food and convert it into rich, red blood, and improve the action of the bowels. We believe them to be the best remedy made for indigestion, and dyspepsia. We certainly wouldn't offer them to you entirely at our risk unless we felt sure they would do you a lot of good. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets do not relieve your indigestion, check the heartburn, and make it possible for you to eat what you like whenever you like, come back and get your money.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only at our store. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.—Grant Holden.

Plain Truth that's Worth Money

Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough or cold may save you both sickness and money. F. F. Monahan, Menomonee, Wis., says: "I am exposed to all kinds of weather and I find Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always fixes me up in good shape when I catch cold or have a bad cough. I recommend it gladly." Refuse substitutes. H. T. Hennessy.

On the Wilson original state central committee for the 11th congressional district, is this man: John J. Sawyer, of Escanaba. When the President introduced grape juice into his cabinet, that was supposed to be the limit. Just how he will receive Sourwine is a question.

Suffered with Throat Trouble.

Mr. Barnes used to be sheriff of Warren County, Tennessee. From exposure to the elements he acquired throat trouble. He supposed that his health was entirely ruined, in spite of all the treatment he could procure.

After using four bottles of Peruna he claims that MR. B. W. D. BARNES, McMinnville, Tenn., was entirely restored to health.

Catarrh of the throat is not only an annoying disease of itself, but it exposes the victim to many other diseases. We are constantly breathing into our throats numerous atmospheric germs. Disease germs of all sorts. This cannot be avoided. If the throat is healthy the system is protected from these poisonous germs. But if the throat is raw and punctured with numerous little ulcers, by catarrh, then the disease germs have easy access to the system.

Keep the throat well and clean. This is the way to protect yourself against contagious diseases. Gargle the throat as explained in the new "This is Life" sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Barnes says: "I had throat trouble and had three doctors treating me. All failed to do me any good, and pronounced my health gone. I concluded to try Peruna, and after using four bottles can say I was entirely cured."
